

Walk-in Interview for Student internship for two months

Walk-in-interviews will be held at CSIR - Central Scientific Instruments Organisation, Chandigarh on 05.12.2019 (Thursday) from 10.00 AM onwards (Venue: Library Block, AcSIR complex, Ground floor, Reporting time: upto 10.00 A.M.) for selection of a student intern in the project entitled “Design and Development of Automated Lab-on-a-Chip Microfluidic System for Assessment of Cellular Reactive Oxygen Species” as part of scientific social responsibility in the SERB funded project.

No. of positions: one

Financial support: Rs. 5000/- per month (fixed)

Duration of engagement: maximum two months from the date of engagement

Qualifications:

Essential: Students pursuing M. Tech in Instrumentation/Nanotechnology, who have scored minimum 60% marks in B. Tech with overall good academic record i.e. first class throughout.

Desirable: Candidates having interest in nanobiosensor and microfluidics will be preferred.

General Conditions:

1. The position is temporary and not extendable beyond 2 months under any circumstances.
2. Interested candidates may appear in person on the specific date with a copy of their resume and testimonials in regard to qualification mentioned above.

Dr. Abhay Sachdev,

Scientist C, Principal Investigator

E. Mail: abhay.sachdev@csio.res.in